

keep trying to show her how much we love her, and one of these days, she'll feel safe and happy everywhere she goes. Bless Sophie's heart, she doesn't bite anyone even when she's frightened or teased about her appearance. When we think about the way she is instead of the way she looks, we can truly say she is a beautiful little dog!"