

On the way home, Mrs. Duncan said, “Well, Piper, what did you think of that?”

Piper was worn out and panting from the experience. She had no idea there were so many different kinds of creatures in the world, or, even more surprising, that they all could be gathered together in one place without fences!

“Do you think Piper will remember what she saw at church today?” Mr. Duncan wondered.

“Maybe, maybe not,” replied Mrs. Duncan. “She’s only a little dog, and sometimes even people don’t remember that many of us are different but all very special to our Heavenly Father.”

“That’s true,” Mr. Duncan agreed, “but Piper is a smart puppy dog, so maybe, just maybe, the next time she sees a cat or a rabbit on her walk, or even Gretel the Dachshund, she’ll remember the amazing gathering at the church.”
