

Don got a lump in his throat as he thought of having to say goodbye to this gentle canine philosopher. Both he and Sally had come regard him as a very special Scottie.

The Gilmans loaded their Rescue “baby” into their truck, and began the trip across town where Scottie was to start a new life with his new owners.