

grandparents to special picnics for people who also had Scottish Terriers. Since Scottie-Robbie's real birthday wasn't known, the Macphees declared the annual spring picnic his birthday party, and brought a cake decorated with his name on it for all to enjoy. Scottie-Robbie was often the only dog there who had a boy on the other end of his leash. He was so proud!

