

THANK YOU

A great surprise has come to us, delivered by the U.S. Mail.
We thought it was fortuitous,
and Angus barked and wagged his tail.

We asked the postman what he brought.
“Manila envelope,” said he.
“What could it be”? was our first thought,
as Angus boogied happily.

We saw it was from Mrs. Gant and students of the Language Arts.
The package made us jubilant,
and Angus howled, “Well, bless their hearts.”

We found a greeting card inside
with messages we read wide-eyed.
All written with a friendly touch,
they filled us with a sense of pride,
and when we finished we replied:
“We thank you. Thank you very much!”

by Lee Netzler