

TUG A LEASH

Tug a leash, tug a leash, pull us along.
Back is straight, legs are strong, shoulders broad, neck is stout, paws pressed hard, nails splayed out, eyes transfixed, eyebrows thick, teeth bared white, breathing quick, ears laid back, lips are curled, chest expanded, tail unfurled, heart a-pumping, lungs are full, tug a leash, tug a leash and pull pull pull.

by Lee Netzler